

MALTA COMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Week 14 April 2025

DEVELOPMENTS IN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK AND SERVICES

10 Takeaways from SATELLITE 2025 from Analysys Mason

The team at Analysys Mason shares its top 10 takeaways from SATELLITE 2025, looking at the impact of geopolitics, the direct-to-device (D2D) ecosystem, supply chain issues for manufacturing, and more.

Via Satellite Today (read more)

Telecoms Security Forum discusses Key Challenges for the Sector

The main discussions during the forum revolved around the resilience of submarine cables and the challenges around the implementation of EU cybersecurity rules. The EU is actively exploring ways to expand cable repair capacity, by increasing the number and availability of specialised repair vessels.

Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE DIGITAL SECTOR

EU Telecoms Regulatory Report March 2025

The upcoming Digital Networks Act (DNA) could very well be a directly binding regulation. Telecoms ministers and European Parliament contemplate tech sovereignty. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY IN TELECOM AND POSTAL SERVICES

Deutsche Post issues Germany's first Recycled Stamp

Deutsche Post is issuing its first stamp on recycled paper with the motif "Flower Letter" from the long-running series "World of Letters". The paper saves resources such as wood, water and electricity and reduces CO2 emissions. Post & Parcel (read more)

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE POSTAL SECTOR

Review of the Postal Universal Service will be among Ofcom's Priorities for the Next 3 Years

Ofcom will carry out three projects related to its work as the postal regulator: Statement on the review and possible reform of regulation affecting the universal service obligation, Report on postal monitoring including the efficiency performance of Royal Mail, Consultation on the affordability and pricing of universal services. Cullen International (read more – subscription required)

Evri announces Robot Dog Delivery Trial

Evri has announced it will trial an autonomous robot delivery dog later this year. In a UK first, the robotic version of man's best friend will work in partnership with a courier to deliver parcels in a trial set for summer 2025. Post & Parcel (read more)