

REGULATION

Further Reductions of Fixed Termination Rates in Norway

Source: Cullen International

On 20 March 2019 Nkom, the Norwegian regulator, adopted new decisions on the wholesale market for voice call termination on individual fixed networks (market 1/2014) [read more – subscription required].

SPECTRUM

China to Lead the World on 5G by 2025

Source: Total Telecom

China will become the biggest market for 5G by 2025, according to a new report published by the GSMA [read more].

INTERNET

We need to talk about Copper – Openreach begins Gigabit Consultation with UK Telcos

Source: Total Telecom

Openreach has launched a consultation period with the UK's leading telcos, to help it upgrade customers and businesses to gigabit speed broadband connections [read more].

Spain: Government's €150m Aid to extend FTTH

Source: Advanced Television

The Spanish Administration has approved a €150 million in grants to extend FTTH to rural areas over the next three years [read more].

POST

50% First-Class Letter Mail within Europe was delivered within Two Days of Posting in 2018

Source: Post & Parcel

The International Post Corporation (IPC) has released the results of research measuring international letter service performance in 2018 [read more].

German Government Grants Deutsche Post a Significant Increase of Letter Prices

Source: Cullen International

For the second time in four years, the German federal government amended secondary legislation to allow Deutsche Post (DP) a significant increase of its retail prices [read more – subscription required].