

REGULATION

Vestager Calls for more Access to Data for Smaller Platforms

Source: Euractiv

Competition Commissioner Margrethe Vestager made a suggestion at the Republica Conference in Berlin: "Access to data has to be redesigned so that newcomers can compete with big tech giants" [read more].

SPECTRUM

European Broadband Mapping Portal goes Live

Source: European Commission

The European Broadband mapping portal represents a big step towards greater harmonisation of broadband data among EU Member States. The portal includes broadband data collected from public, national and private, as well as international initiatives on fixed and mobile services and socio-economic data from Eurostat for the same area [read more].

INTERNET

Vodafone Germany Wholesale Telefónica Deal for EU Remedy

Source: Advanced Television

Vodafone has agreed a cable wholesale agreement in Germany with Telefónica Deutschland – a deal it hopes will seal EU approval for its' Liberty acquisition [read more].

BT increases Full Fibre Target

Source: Broadband TV News

BT has announced plans to roll out full fibre to millions of homes [read more].

FTTH hits New Highs in Spain

Source: Broadband TV News

The number of FTTH lines in Spain exceeded 8.8 million in February, according to the latest data published by the regulator CNMC [read more].

Prague 5G Security Conference and Proposals push International and EU Cooperation

Source: Cullen International

On 3 and 4 May 2019 more than 150 cybersecurity experts from EU member states, Australia, Canada, the United States, Israel, Japan and other countries met in Prague to discuss 5G security [read more – subscription required].

TELEVISION

Germany launches TV via 5G Broadcast Trial

Source: Broadband TV News

The 5G Today project has officially started its field trial for TV broadcasting via 5G at a kick-off event at German broadcast technology research institute IRT in Munich today [read more].

POST

Study: Development of Cross-Border e-Commerce through Parcel Delivery

Source: WIK Consulting

This study by WIK-Consult explores developments and trends in the supply of and demand for delivery solutions in the context of cross-border e-commerce. It particularly emphasises the needs of e-retailers and consumers, and includes regulatory aspects as well as employment and environmental topics. The assessment is based on extensive desk research and intensive stakeholder interaction [read more].

CNMC fines Correos for Breach of Universal Service Provisions

Source: Cullen International

The Spanish regulator, CNMC, fined Correos €60,000 for a serious breach of universal service regulations [read more – subscription required].