

TELEVISION

Spain Allocates €50m to DTT Migration

Source: Advanced Television

The Spanish Government has proposed €50 million in grants in the 2019 state budget to help Spaniards retune their antennas in the second digital migration [read more].

Switzerland to Switch Off DTT in June

Source: Policy Tracker

Switzerland will be the first European country to completely switch off free-to-air digital terrestrial television (DTT) [read more – subscription required].

POST

Spanish Regulator Fines Unipost for Failing to Deliver Millions of Postal Items

Source: Cullen International

CNMC, the Spanish regulator, issued a resolution to fine Unipost €80,001 for failing to deliver 3.4m postal items, instead keeping them in the company's offices [read more – subscription required].

Postal Operators other than Royal Mail now Liable to Contribute to Costs of Consumer Advocacy Bodies

Source: Cullen International

Ofcom, the UK regulator, has decided that a wider range of postal operators will have to contribute to the costs of UK's consumer advocacy bodies (CABs) [read more – subscription required].

ECOMMERCE

UK Mobile Commerce is Exploding – Research

Source: Telecoms.com

New research from price comparison site uSwitch.com reveals that the use of mobile devices to go shopping in the UK is growing rapidly [read more].