

REGULATION

Single Maximum Wholesale Voice Termination Rates: European Commission announces next steps

Source: Cullen International

The European Commission plans a public consultation in Q3 2019 on a draft delegated act to set EU-level single maximum rates for fixed and mobile wholesale voice termination (market 1-2/2014) [read more – subscription required].

ETSI Global Standard for Consumer IoT Security

Source: Advanced Television

The ETSI Technical Committee on Cybersecurity (TC CYBER) has just released ETSI TS 103 645, a standard for cybersecurity in the Internet of Things, to establish a security baseline for internet-connected consumer products and provide a basis for future IoT certification schemes [read more].

SPECTRUM

The World's First 6G Summit

Source: Policy Tracker

Despite the uncertainty over 5G, plans are already afoot for 6G, with some additional frequencies probably required. Some say 6G will be the technology that delivers 5G [read more – subscription required].

INTERNET

Deal Struck on Copyright Reform after 'Intense' Negotiations

Source: EurActiv

The future of online copyright is set to be radically transformed after EU negotiators struck an agreement on the controversial Copyright Directive on Wednesday 13th February, over two years after the measures were tabled by the European Commission [read more].

FTTH Advances in Spain

Source: Broadband TV News

FTTH is already the main mode of access to fixed broadband in Spanish municipalities with over 50,000 inhabitants [read more].

Liberty Global on Broadband: What Consumers Really Want

Source: Broadband TV News

Over a third (38%) of consumers value the 'collective' benefits of their home broadband the most important, according to a new report commissioned by Liberty Global from consultants A.T. Kearney [read more].

INFORMATION SOCIETY

Report: US Digital Divide Narrowing

Source: Advanced Television

The digital divide between Americans with and without access to modern broadband networks has narrowed substantially, according to the draft 2019 Broadband Deployment Report, which has been circulated by FCC Chairman Ajit Pai to his fellow commissioners [read more].