

SPECTRUM

EC Promises Action on 5G Security

Source: Advanced Television

EC Commissioner for the digital economy, Mariya Gabriel, has promised in the Mobile World Congress that the European Commission would address 5G net security issues [\[read more\]](#).

Just How Secure is 5G?

Source: Total Telecom

A senior representative from ETSI says that 5G is fundamentally more secure than previous generations [\[read more\]](#).

FCC: 'Modern Regulatory Approach Boosts 5G'

Source: Advanced Television

Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Commissioner Brendan Carr has suggested that policy decisions it has adopted have helped the early development of 5G in the US [\[read more\]](#).

INTERNET

Mobile Broadband Prices Went Down in Europe in 2018

Source: European Commission

The results of the new study show that the mobile broadband prices were going down in 2018 in the EU countries [\[read more\]](#).

Ofcom tells UK ISPs to Get Real over Broadband Speed Claims

Source: Total Telecom

Ofcom has launched a new campaign to clamp down on spurious speed claims, made by internet service providers (ISPs) in the country [\[read more\]](#).

Greece and North Macedonia Agree to End Roaming Charges

Source: EurActiv

Athens and Skopje have signed an agreement to gradually decrease roaming charges and remove them completely by 2021 [\[read more\]](#).

TELEVISION

Spain Finally Grants €172m for DTT Migration

Source: Advanced Television

The Spanish Administration will allocate €172 million to help Spaniards retune their antennas in the second digital migration [\[read more\]](#).

POST

Royal Mail to Increase Postage Prices for First and Second Class Letters, Temporarily Breaching its Price Cap Obligation

Source: Cullen International

Royal Mail, the UK universal service provider (USP), announced changes to postage prices that cause a temporary breach of its retail price cap obligation [read more – subscription required].